■ Synopsis:

As a space of well-being, the bathroom is now considered as one of the most important room in the house. It is larger and lighter than it used to be, and at the centre of our intimacy, thus we like to feel comfortable in it. Throughout this book readers will discover bathrooms in different styles: countryside, retro and second-hand, contemporary and chic, design and loft style, etc. This book is a real source of inspiration to create your dream bathroom!

■ What is there to learn?

Readers will discover the different existing styles of bathrooms, from classic ones to small Turkish baths and saunas. They will also find examples of different set ups, to help them imagine the ideal bathroom. A part of the book also focuses on all the bathtubs, showers, ponds or heated towel rails available, and on the materials to use for the walls and floors.

■ The Author:

Anne-Sophie Puget is a journalist specialized in decoration since 1995. She regularly works for Marie Claire Maison magazine, for which she writes surveys and practical guides.
