■ Synopsis :

This book is an ally for those who starts the great adventure of decoration, those who wants to change their surroundings, or just give some freshness to their interiors.

How to give the impression of a bigger space ? How to give some intimacy to a room, How to give some personality to a room. Everything is linked to colours and materials!

Readers will particularly like the out of the ordinary associations, the classical ones, but also the contemporary or timeless ones which are presented within this book, and which are as many unsuspected sources of inspiration.

■ What is there to learn?

How to handle the different whites, greys, yellows, pinks, reds, greens, blues, browns and blacks, to have a home always more agreeable to live in.

■ The Author:

Anne Valéry is a journalist specialized in decoration and arrangements. She is also the author of Maisons de vacances / Summer Houses (2012).
