■ Synopsis:

Currently, what is trendy is the mix of different styles, colours and materials. In the whole house, from kitchen to living-room and to bedroom from bathroom, in the garden, mixing creates new atmospheres, which reflects more than just a style, but a true way of life.

Throughout examples and timeless associations, readers will find out ways to reawaken traditional interiors, or on the opposite, customize a contemporary interior.

■ What is there to learn?

The correct duos, the surprising alliances and the associations that work! But also, the good tricks to mix up without mistakes, and how to harmonize colours and associate patterns.

■ The Author:

Martine Freynet worked for several years as a press agent, and she is now an freelance journalist specialized in way of living. She works for several magazines in France, such as Art & Décoration and Marie-Claire Maison.
