■ Synopsis:

Kitchen is no longer reserved to the cook, but has now become a sort of living room. It is convivial and open to receive family and friends around the table. Readers will discover in this title numerous kitchens made in different styles: countryside, modern and chic, design, reuse and industrial, etc. This book is the perfect source of inspiration to imagine your dream kitchen.

■ What is there to learn?

Many different elements are presented in this title: blocks, rich and varied settlements, domestic electrical goods, and materials and floor types.

■ The Author:

Nathalie Soubiran is an author who frequently write for « Art & Decoration ». She is the author of Combles à vivre / Attics and Chambres d'enfants / Children's Bedrooms, recently published (2014).
