■ Synopsis:

Reuse and second-hand go well together, and give birth to very personalized and creative styles, with a real personality. Throughout this book full of photographs, readers will find many sources of inspirations! They will be able to discover charming atmospheres, styles associated with taste, sometimes full of humour, and always surprising.

This book is thought as a guide and thanks to it, readers will be taken in a creative universe, in which resourcefulness and taste for materials and objects from the past are at the centre.

■ What is there to learn?

Visit a house room after room, and have a look at an inventory of unavoidable elements and to tips to give a new life to your cement tiles, to silverware or to glassware.

■ The Author:

Karine Villame is a leading author at Massin publishing and particularly for the collection « Art & Decoration ». She recently signed in the same collection Ranger – Gain de place / Storage (2014).
