■ Synopsis:

Soft soap is a magic product, and can be used in many ways for home cleaning. It was created in 1900 by the famous French soap factory “Marius Fabre”. Only composed of vegetal materials, this soap contains no preservative or artificial colourings. 100% natural, it is the ideal ally for a clean and healthy house!

Cleaning or laundry, you can use soft soap with all the materials. Simple of use and economical, it is also very ecologic.

This book contains instructions to clean everything inside and outside the house thanks to this magic soap : floors, dishes, copper pot, silverware, clothes, chimney, and even some sort of plants!

■ The Author:

Isabelle Louet is a journalist, who already published with Marie Claire Une maison Feng Shui / A Feng Shui House (2014), who will be reprinted in March 2015 following its success.
