

Dye and Sewing

May 2016

Synopsis:

What is better to reawaken a colourless cloth than customise it thanks to dye and a few sewing alterations? And to do so, no need to use chemical products. Many natural tips exists to change completely, or just partly, the colour of your fabrics: fruits, onion, spices, plants, flowers, tea, etc. You will be surprised to see what you can realise at home, very simply and with very little money.

In addition, if you learn to do some alterations or improvements (sew a badge or a button, add a collar, shorten sleeves...), then your wardrobe will appear to you as a real Ali Baba's Cave!

Basic material will be needed: an old saucepan, salt, colander... and of course pieces of fabrics or clothes that you no longer like.

Ideas of decorative objects and accessories are also presented in the book.

The Author:

Clémentine Lubin is in love with sewing. She is the author of numerous titles with Marie Claire Books: L'Agenda Couture Singer (2016), Je couds pour ma fille (2016), Coudre pour l'école (2016), J'apprends à coudre des robes et des jupes (2015), J'apprends à coudre des hauts (2015).
