

Gardening Calendar 2017

August 2016

Synopsis:

This year, why not start permaculture, the new bio gardening? With this new calendar, learn how to take care of your garden throughout the year in a natural way and without any risk of pollutant for the environment. Between tips from gardeners from the past and technics used in biological market gardening, this calendar give you the keys to take care of nutritive gardening in reduced spaces.

What is inside:

- Analyse your earth and master technics to improve it: compost, straw-mulching, manure, etc.
- Optimise square meters.
- Prevent the garden from insects and illnesses.

This 2017 calendar will be your ally to become a gardener respectful of nature!

The Author:

Sandra Lefrançois is passionate about nature and plants. She is co-author of this agenda with Philippe Bonduel. Philippe is in love with nature. He was chief redactor of the magazine « 100 idées jardin » focusing on gardening. He is the author of « Scènes de Jardin / Garden Sceneries » published with Massin, one of the most successful titles of the « 1000 Ideas » series.
