■ Synopsis

Simple does not mean simplistic. With this title, decoration goes back to the essentials, thanks to objects with subtle inspirations from nature. Many elements made of wood, many plants, and an impression to breath countryside fresh air while being at home. Find in this title the inspiration to create a Zen environment in your house.

30 decorative ideas with explanations step by step and schemas are available.

■ The Author

Isabelle Leloup has a formation of painter. She collaborates with Marie Claire Idées magazine, focused on DIY and decoration, for more than 10 years now. She also works for the Opera de Paris setting workshop, and for lifestyle magazines and publishing houses. Her universe is a mix of creativity, poetry, and sensitivity.
