

Style Classes

June 2016

Synopsis:

This book was made in partnership with the American school of fashion « Parsons » in Paris. This collaboration created a particularly innovating title, with 15 basic designs on patterns, on which you can work, to obtain personalised clothes.

These designs were especially made by the students of the Parsons School. They give to the readers their advises on style, in a very « friend chic » way.

The book has detailed step by step in order to make the explanations clearer.

The Parsons School :

Created in 1896, the Parsons School is a school of Art & design with high reputation. A branch was opened in Paris in 1921. Parsons School students are stylists, designers, publicists and artists of tomorrow. In their work, they ally tradition and new tendencies, keeping an open spirit on the world, and always pleased to share their knowledge.
