

Bicarbonate of Soda

August 2016

Synopsis:

Magic powder, miraculous ingredient... bicarbonate of soda is always praised! It is indeed convenient and replace many toxic cleaning products.

100% biodegradable, bicarbonate of soda will become your everyday ally. You will no longer be able to live without it. It will help you take care of your house, your laundry, deodorise your cupboards, give a new life to your old silverware, but also to keep the vivid colours of your vegetables, descale your kettle, and even realize surprising exfoliation for your skin!

Bicarbonate of soda will enter your house, and will stay!

The Author:

Sylvie Fabre is a journalist working for Maxi, Fémina Hebdo, DS Magazine and Julie in France. She also works for France 2 on television. She is a real specialist of feminine press and spent more than 15 years looking for the best « tips » to make cleaning easier! Today, she teaches her knowledge and writes books (Sybex, First).
