

I Become a Creator

50 Successful Examples

October 2016

Synopsis :

Discover in this title the career path of 50 different creators specialized in DIY. Published for Marie Claire Idées 25th anniversary, this book is a selection of portraits from 25 years of interviews and discoveries in the magazine.

For each creator there are photos of herself/himself and of her/his creations, and of course a summary of their life, focused of course on their DIY career and how they reached this creative position.

At the end of the book, all the websites and addresses are indicated, and some information are given on the available trainings that can be done in France (adaptable to other countries).

A real source of inspiration for all the creators-to-be, who want to live from their passion for DIY.

The Author:

After an editorial training at Estienne school, Camilly Soulayrol started studying Fine Arts in Paris. As an object creator, she then started working for Marie Claire Idées and later became a redactor. Today she still works for the magazine, and develops in parallel more personal projects such as books and images.
