

I Learn to Sew Baby Gifts

February 2017

Synopsis:

It is such a pleasure to sew for new-born babies. You will find in this title 22 creations to realise for them. Useful objects, toys, decorations: a large selection of what parents need is available in this title.

Some examples of the creations: baby sleeping bag, cushions, valance, early learning play mat, changing bag, comfort toys, bib, slippers, etc.

The book presents delicate and refined ideas, that will become nice baby gifts to offer. Charming and sweet ideas for baby's well-being and parents' pleasure.

The Author:

Coralie Bijasson works as a stylist, designer and costume designer. She leads sewing classes for adults and children, and realises clothes for customers. She graduated from Académie internationale de Coupe de Paris. She worked for eight years as a product manager for Etam. She is the author of My First Sewing Creations with Marie Claire Books.
