

Sewing Encyclopaedia

February 2017

Synopsis:

This book is made for all those who wish to start sewing, by hand or with a machine. It is the ideal guidebook to learn about the vocabulary, the material and the necessary supplies. For each project, readers will know for each technic which stitch to use, which thread or fabrics.

This book will also teach you how to use a sewing machine, but also notions on how to use the overlock and coverlock

From a simple hem to the creation of a piece of cloth, this guidebook is full of detailed instructions, advices and tips to discover all the secrets of sewing. Lessons are in photo step by step in order to be clearer for the readers.

The Author:

Clémentine Lubin is in love with sewing.
