

Weaving for Decoration

Octobre 2017

Synopsis:

Weaving is fashionable again, and this new title is perfect for all those who want to start! The two main technics (with a weaving loom or in circles) are explained step by step with many advises to guide the readers in the apprenticeship of weaving. This book also contains around 20 creations with different levels of difficulty and types of weaving.

Not much material is needed in order to weave, and to create impressive objects for decoration. A part of this title even explains how to realize your own weaving loom thanks to simple material.

Weaving really allows to leave space to creativity!

Content:

Wall hangings, dream catchers, carpets, cushions, frames, plaids, pouches, purses, bag, place mats, planters, etc.

The Author:

Juliette Michelet is a young textile designer. She works for French magazine Elle and regularly collaborates with DIY magazine Marie Claire Idées. Weaving is a real passion, that she looks forward to share with her readers.
