

Home-Made Fragrances

All you need to know about esencia, smells, technics, etc.

September 2017

Synopsis:

This book is made for all those who wish to start making fragrances for their house or for their body. It is indeed possible to make agreeable home-made fragrances with numerous properties, very simply and with few money.

Thanks to this title, readers will learn how to use the essential oils (or how to avoid them!), to realize nice smells, but also recipes to do potpourri, fragrances for the house or the pillows, smelling bags, body powders, bath salts, etc.

The Author:

Martine Azoulai works for numerous magazines as a journalist specialized in beauty and well-being. She is passionate about cosmetics in general and natural remedies. She started a blog ten years ago, on which she shares all her tips and recipes. She is the author of Bach Flower Remedies published with Marie Claire in 2016.
