

I Start Mosaic

May 2018

Synopsis:

Mosaic is a form of Art everyone can practice. It suits also contemporary interiors and is a way to personalize your own objects as well as implementing your creations.

The book will first explain the reader what are the material requested, the choice of colors and the basics technics to acquire. Then, thanks to detailed step-by-step explanations, the Author will guide the reader on the creation of his first works in mosaic.

Content:

Tools, equipment,
Matching texture and colors
Choice and preparation of the support
Technical skills
First creations : tray; mirrors boxes...

The Author:

Delphine Lescuyer is a self-taught mosaicist. She teaches ceramics in workshops in the Paris area and in Brittany during Summers.

■ Specifications :

- Collection : Knowledge and Doing
- Publication May 2018
- RRP : 19,90 €
- 128 pages
- 195 x 225 mm
- hardback
- ISBN : 978-2-7072-1091-3

