

Marie & Claire : Feelings

September 2017

Synopsis:

Marie & Claire have many friends at school, but they do not like them all the same way. For example, each time Marie meets Pierre, she feels very strange. What is happening to her? Is that « love »? Why is it different from what she feels for her other friends... or for her family? Thanks to her older sister Claire, Marie will try to better understand all these different feelings she has.

A presentation of the characters is available at the beginning of the book, and at the end, 4 pages of psychological advises by a professional are aiming at parents, for them to understand and reassure their children from 5 to 7 year-old.

The Author:

Céline Potard used to work as a publisher, but she is now an author specialised in children books. She works for different publishing houses: picture books and activity books with Auzou, animal books with Lito, game boxes with Bayard and documentaries with La Martinière.

The Illustrator:

Bénédicte Voile works as a graphic designer and an illustrator. She mainly works in the press field, both for adults and children, with magazine such as Disney Girl. In the book publishing field, she works with Hachette and Solar. Her style is modern and original. She loves giving life to her characters!
