

Marie & Claire – Arguments

February 2018

Synopsis:

During school break, Claire and her friends have an argument. Claire is responsible for this situation, but she does not want to apologise. Her friends leave her alone before the end of the break.

Back at home, she is very sad and tells the whole story to her dad. She feels guilty and is afraid she has lost her friends for ever! Her dad explains her that arguments happen, but that it is no big deal: what is important is to reconsider our behaviour and to apologise if we did or said something bad.

In this new story, we follow the sisters in their relationship with other children, focusing on arguments at school.

The book also contains a page of presentation of the characters and 4 pages of advises by a psychologist, to help parents discuss of this issue with their children from 5 to 7 year-old.

The Author:

Céline Potard used to work as a publisher, but she is now an author specialised in children books. She works for different publishing houses: picture books and activity books with Auzou, animal books with Lito, game boxes with Bayard and documentaries with La Martinière.

The Illustrator:

Bénédicte Voile works as a graphic designer and an illustrator. She mainly works in the press field, both for adults and children, with magazine such as Disney Girl. In the book publishing field, she works with Hachette and Solar. Her style is modern and original. She loves giving life to her characters!
