

Marie & Claire – Endangered Species

February 2018

Synopsis:

Today Marie and Claire are very excited because they are going to visit a zoo! They have a lot of fun, and are amazed by all these different and surprising species. But when they arrive in front of the orang-utans, they learn that they are threatened by deforestation. The sisters are outraged and would like the animals to be no longer in danger. It is the perfect occasion for their parents to raise their awareness on the numerous dangers that threaten numerous animals around the world, and to explain them what they can do to help.

The book also contains a page of presentation of the characters and 4 pages of advises by a psychologist, to help parents discuss of this issue with their children from 5 to 7 year-old.

The Author:

Céline Potard used to work as a publisher, but she is now an author specialised in children books. She works for different publishing houses: picture books and activity books with Auzou, animal books with Lito, game boxes with Bayard and documentaries with La Martinière.

The Illustrator:

Bénédicte Voile works as a graphic designer and an illustrator. She mainly works in the press field, both for adults and children, with magazine such as Disney Girl. In the book publishing field, she works with Hachette and Solar. Her style is modern and original. She loves giving life to her characters!
