

The Palaces of Versailles' Gardens

November 2016

Synopsis:

Discover the gardens of Versailles following the footsteps of Louis XIV the Sun King. Between History and botanic, follow the alleys and discover unknown places and curiosities of the gardens.

Thanks to this title, you will see the gardens as you have never seen them, following the best of guides, the author, as he worked there for several years and knows the place by heart.

The Author:

Jean-Baptiste Duchêne graduated from the Liege University with a diploma in Landscape Architecture. He worked for two years, on projects of conception and restauration of parks and gardens (Domaine national de Versailles, Domaine de Sceaux, Désert de Retz à Chambourcy, château de Villette à Condécourt...). Now working as a freelance, he works on different projects from contemporary gardens to conception of public spaces.

Laureate of the « Mémoire Award » of the Belgian Association of Architectures of Garden and Landscapes in 2013, and Laureate of the Institute of Walloon Patrimony in 2015.
