

Mum in Joint Custody

March 2019

Self Help

Synopsis:

Following the first title Woman.com, we now follow Justine as a mother. The story – inspired from true facts – starts as soon as Justine is a little girl.

Justine becomes a mum, and with time, decides to split up with her companion, and thus, against her will, with her children. A new life begins, made of freedom, full of joy, but also sometimes, of loneliness.

> A very moving story and a strong testimony on resilience, on healing, courage to change life, self-confidence, the importance given to desires and to the needs of achievements in every areas of life.

Themes:

Unconditional love, little girl's scars and woman's scars, mum's mission, divorce, joint custody, instinct...

The Author:

Sabine Rainard lives between Paris and Chartres. She works as a writer, a lyricist, a dancer and a singer. Following a career in communication, she decides to leave this universe to live her artistic gifts to the fullest, and lives a life more in agreement to her real self.

The series : « I am all (of them), and much more »

This is the second title from a series of 5. Woman.com is the first title.
